SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

SESSION 2 | AUCHMAR ESTATE

The historic Claremont Estate in Hamilton has a long and interesting history from country home to religious retreat to vacant estate. Please join Carolyn Samko from the City of Hamilton on a virtual tour of Auchmar House and its grounds, see the historic Mount Cenacle Retreat facility, the gothic interior of Auchmar House and all the interesting outbuildings on the estate. Share some of the hidden secrets of the place and learn about the challenges of adapting heritage places to a new use.

SESSION 3 | DIGITAL PRESERVATION

3-hour Zoom workshop on digital preservation. Participants will be provided with links to download open source software in advance of the workshop, and can try it out during the workshop. The topics covered will be:

- * Preservation issues concerning digital records
- * Open Archival Information System reference model
- * Demonstration: A simple digital preservation workflow using open source tools
- * Practice using some tools: Data Accessioner, Metadata Transformer, Bagger
- * Demonstration: Archiving webpages and avoiding link rot using Conifer and Perma.cc

SESSION 4 | EMBRACING THE CHALLENGE OF THE PAST

The Hill Museum & Manuscript Library (HMML), part of Saint John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota, holds the world's largest archive of manuscript photographs in both microfilm and digital format. Dr. Heintzelman will discuss HMML's mission and the preservation of at-risk manuscripts.
